

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are pleased to announce that we are now hosting a new, previously unpublished batch of transcripts of some of the seminars that Cornelius Castoriadis (1922-1997) presented at l'École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales. These new transcripts, which were made by participants in those seminars (including Olivier Fressard, François Loget and Pascal Vernay), have been available through Agora International (www.agorainternational.org) since 1991. Originally sold for cash (to reimburse the costs of reproduction) to the students who attended, these transcripts were produced with Castoriadis' permission, though he did not get the chance to verify their accuracy. The original conditions required that they could be reproduced freely, that they may not be used for commercial purposes, and that any quotation from them should be properly sourced.

Titled "Ontology and Modes of Being," this new batch of transcripts (11 in total) come from the seminars that Castoriadis presented during the 1989-1990 academic year and are based upon digitized recordings. Accessible at <https://notbored.org/castoriadis-seminaires-1989-1990.pdf>, they are now made available to the general public with the same requirements as before. Anyone who is interested in the formation of a collective of transcribers that might strive to improve these transcripts and/or participate in the transcription of other unpublished recordings are encouraged to contact us at info@notbored.org. Please put "Transcriptions" in the subject heading and the phrase "I volunteer" in the body of the email.
